I also keep a good supply of Syrups, Coal Oil and Pure Cider Vinegar; the very best brands of Tobaccos, Clgars, Powder Shot and Caps, and, in fine, everything generally kept in a first-class grocery store, together with a good line of Boots and Shoes, consisting of Plow Shoes, Men and Boy's Boots, coarse and fine; Ladies' Shoes, all styles, and I believe I can say I have the largest stock of Queensware in Alayview, of the best white grante ware, and the most complete line of Glassware in tow; Lamps of all sizes, Lamp Burners, Lamp Chimneys, Lamp Wicks, &c.; a complete line of earthen ware, consisting of Milk Grocks, Jars, Churns and Juga, Irom one milk Grocks, Jars, Churns and Jugs, from one gallon to eight, and a good line of Pocket and Table Cutlery, and a great many other articles too tedious to mention, all of which I invite the Table Cuttery, and a great many other articles too tedious to mention, all or which I invite the public, after thanking them kindly for the very liberal patronage given me in the past, to call in the luture. Not aiming this as a cut or thrust at my brother merchants, I do not say that I will sell cheaper, below cost or give my goods away, but having seven years experience in the trade, and knowing how and when to buy, I believe I can give as low prices and good goods as any other merchant in Mayview or elsewhere, and make a small profit, and give you satisfaction. I expect to sell my goods mainly for cash or country produce that I can convert into cash, consequently I will not be driven to the necessity of making you pay for goods sold on credit and lost. I will take in exchange for goods, bacon, dried fruits, dry or green hides, pelts, tallow, uceswax, chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, eggs, butter, feathers, &c., and in fact everything that I can convert into money at Kansas City or St. Louis. Hoping to receive a share of your patronage, I am, yours very respectivily, I. W. WHITGEIT.

Ague Cure

Is a purely vegetable bitter and powerful tonic, and is warranted a speedy and certain cure for Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, and all malarial disorders. In miasmatic districts, the rapid pulse, coated tongue, thirst, lassitude, loss of appetite, pain in the back and loins, and coldness of the spine and extremities, are only premonitions of severer symptoms, which terminate in the ague paroxysm, succeeded by high fever ague paroxysm, succeeded by high fever and profuse perspiration. and profuse perspiration.

It is a startling fact, that quinine, arsenic and other poisonous minerals, form the basis of most of the "Fever and Agne Preparations," "Specifics," "Syrups," and "Tonics," in the market. The preparations made from these mineral poisons, although they are palatable, and may break the chill, do not cure, but leave the malarial and their own drug poison in the system, producing quinism, dizziness, ringing in the ears, headache, vertigo, and other disorders more formidable than the disease they were intended to cure. Ayer's Ague Cure thoroughly eradicates these noxious poisons from the system, these noxious poisons from the system, and always cures the severest cases. It contains no quinine, mineral, or any thing that could injure the most delicate patient; and its crowning excellence, above its certainty to cure, is that it leaves the system as free from disease as before the attack.
